Muslims everywhere are shocked by the brutality of Indian occupying forces in Kashmir and the wanton killing of innocent protestors against occupation.

The Islamic Council expects the Khadim al Haramain al Sharafain to take the lead in defence of the suffering Kashmiri Muslims, to condemn the Indian forces and to call for a unified Muslim response in support of self-determination for Kashmir as laid down in United Nations resolutions. It has been reported that so far only Iran has publically condemned India's brutality, and has cancelled a visit by the Indian Foreign Minister to Tehran. This is a most inadequate response by the Muslim Ummah to a tragedy overwhelming their Muslim brethren, and we urge you to take appropriate action immediately.

May Allah bless your efforts in the service of Islam.
